

CHRISTCHURCH DINO TRAIL

Free

10 dinosaurs are hiding around Christchurch in windows and buildings. Write down where you discover each dinosaur in the boxes below.

There's a small dino-themed surprise for every child who completes their trail and takes a selfie with the dino egg in Christchurch Library on the High Street. Share your selfie and tag @christchurchbid on Instagram

Thursday 23rd July until Monday 31st August
(see overleaf for times)

Dino Dig at the Mayor's Parlour
Saturday 29th August,
10am to 3pm

Christchurch Dino Trail

Thursday 23rd July until Monday 31st August.

Main times to catch them all: 10am to 3pm each day (please check opening hours of the Red House Museum, The Library and The Regent before venturing out)

Dino Dig at the Mayor's Parlour

Saturday 29th August, 10am to 3pm

The trail that can be completed in one go or over multiple trips. The total distance is approximately 1.5km through the town and green spaces.

Christchurch BID is a business-led, not-for-profit company, funded by a levy placed on local businesses in the designated BID area. The collaborative investment, collected from over 270 local businesses, is used to enhance, maintain, promote and encourage people to visit, stay and experience Christchurch.

www.christchurchbid.co.uk